

RIGHTS CATALOGUE

2024 APRIL

FOLIANT

SHAPES, COLORS, AND NEW WORDS

The board book "Shapes, Colors, and New Words" from the series "Smart from Birth" introduces young children to various shapes and vibrant colors. Each page is dedicated to a different form and color, with captions accompanying each illustration. This board book can be used as an educational tool, perfect for learning shapes and colors while also expanding a child's vocabulary. It is designed for children aged 0 and up.

size
120x130mm

Pages: 22

DOMESTIC ANIMALS

The board book "Domestic Animals" from the series "Smart from Birth" introduces young children to various household animals. Each page features a different animal with captions accompanying the illustrations. This board book can be used as a teaching aid, ideal for learning about domestic animals while helping to expand a child's vocabulary. It is designed for children aged 0 and up.

size
120x130mm

Pages: 22

WILD ANIMALS

The board book "Wild Animals" from the series "Smart from Birth" introduces young children to various wild animals. Each page showcases a different animal with captions for every illustration. This board book serves as an excellent educational tool, perfect for learning about wild animals while also helping to expand a child's vocabulary. It is designed for children aged 0 and up.

size
120x130mm

Pages: 22

PLANTS

The board book "Plants" from the series "Smart from Birth" introduces young children to various plants. Each page is dedicated to a specific plant, with captions accompanying every illustration. This board book serves as a great educational tool, ideal for learning about plants and expanding a child's vocabulary. It is designed for children aged 0 and up.

size
120x130mm

Pages: 22

VEGETABLES AND FRUITS

The board book "Vegetables and Fruits" from the series "Smart from Birth" introduces young children to a variety of fruits and vegetables. Each page features a different fruit or vegetable, with captions for every illustration. This board book can be used as an educational aid, perfect for learning about fruits and vegetables while helping to expand a child's vocabulary. It is designed for children aged 0 and up.

size
120x130mm

Pages: 22

TRANSPORT

"Smart from Birth" is a collection of developmental books for very young children. This particular booklet teaches your child to distinguish between the cars they see on the street every day. Featuring artistic illustrations, this high-quality booklet is designed to assist you in this learning process. With its small size and rounded corners, it is comfortable and safe for little hands to hold.

size
120x130mm

Pages: 22

SPECIALTIES

"Smart from Birth" is a collection of developmental books for very young children. This booklet introduces your little one to various professions, helping them ponder the question, "Who am I going to be?" Featuring artistic illustrations, this high-quality booklet is designed to aid in this exploration. With its small size and rounded corners, it is comfortable and safe for little hands to hold.

size
120x130mm

Pages: 22

INHABITANTS OF THE SEA

"Smart from Birth" is a collection of developmental books designed for very young children. "Inhabitants of the Sea," which follows the previous books on animals—"Wild Animals" and "Pets"—introduces the creatures that inhabit water. This quality booklet features artistic illustrations and is small in size with rounded corners, making it comfortable and safe for little hands to hold.

size
120x130mm

Pages: 22

"WHO AM I? WHAT CLOTHES DO I WEAR? MY HOUSE."

"Smart from the Smallest" is a collection of developmental books designed for the youngest children. Let your little one begin to ponder, "Who am I to be?" for the day is not far when such thoughts arise. Hence, it's crucial to introduce them to various professions. This high-quality booklet adorned with artistic illustrations will be of great assistance. With its small size and rounded corners, it's comfortable and safe for little hands to hold.

size
220x170mm

Pages: 10

size
145x215mm

Pages: 128

PAPER CAP

Ospankhan Aubakirov

Ospankhan Aubakirov is a renowned writer, poet, and a classic figure in Kazakh satire. He authored poems, fairy tales, and plays for children, with his first book, The Bell, published in 1960. His subsequent works include Scattered, Left-Handed, What Is There to Hide?, Do You Want to Laugh?, Filtered Word, Magic, and Do You Know the Sign?, among others. He also received the Writers' Union Prize for his book Paper Cap.

This collection features poems, fairy tales, humorous musings, and riddles by the writer. His works, rich in humor and sarcasm, help children distinguish between good and bad while expanding their vocabulary. They inspire enthusiasm for doing good deeds and promote virtuous behavior.

“THE NEW ADVENTURES OF HARE PULKA AND HIS FRIENDS”

Valery Kastryuchin

One day, Pulka the hare, a big storyteller and restless prankster, wove a rope out of bast, made a swing, and with the help of a moose, swung so high that he flew straight to the top of a pine tree along with the swing. All the animals had to come together to rescue the hare...

This is a wonderful book where fairy tales are intertwined with vivid and realistic depictions of the everyday lives of forest animals, birds, and more. In these stories, even trees, mushrooms, and flowers come to life—an entire world is animated!

In addition to Pulka, our young readers will enjoy meeting familiar friends of the hare—Mikhail the bear, Goga the moose, Borka the badger, Renka the squirrel, Yulka the mouse—and other forest inhabitants. Through the eyes of the inspired nature writer Valery Kastryuchin, children will once again observe their lives and learn many fascinating facts about their habits and biological traits. The colorful illustrations by the talented Belarusian artist Yuri Strukov will help bring these stories to life for the young readers.

size
170x240mm

Pages: 68

“THE ADVENTURES OF HARE PULKA AND HIS FRIENDS”

Valery Kastryuchin

“The Adventures of Hare Pulka and His Friends” - an exciting tale of the incredible adventures of a little hare named Pulki and his faithful friends who live on a forest glade. Together, they embark on thrilling journeys, explore the surrounding world, encounter various fairy-tale characters, and tackle diverse challenges. Written by a talented children's author, this book aims to bring readers joyful and delightful moments while inspiring them with themes of friendship, courage, and teamwork.

size
220x290mm

Pages: 80

A LOON LIVED BEYOND THE SEA

Valery Kastryuchin

Every creature on Earth, no matter how small, has its own path, its own destiny. In the fairy tale “A Loon Lived Beyond the Sea” by Valery Kastryuchin, laureate of the first International Literary Award named after V.V. Bianchi in the category “Fairy Tale” (2016), the story of two black-throated loons, Kuik and Guli, unfolds, highlighting the themes of selflessness and love—emotions that, as it turns out, are not only found in humans but also in birds.

After raising their chicks, the loons embark on a journey to their wintering grounds. However, after an attack by a peregrine falcon, Kuik and Guli are separated, and Guli faces a long, solitary journey through the harsh waters of northern seas and Karelia's lakes. She faces many adventures and dangers, but what keeps her going is the memory of her beloved Kuik.

This enchanting tale about the lives of birds stands out not only for its artistic and educational value but also for the vibrant illustrations by Tamara Shelest, a unique Belarusian artist, winner of national and international painting and graphic arts competitions, and a prestigious award-winning children's book illustrator.

size
220x290mm

Pages: 64

THE ADVENTURES OF THE BRAVE ANT

Valery Kastyuchin

A fantastic book for preschool and early elementary school children will introduce you to the amazing world of insects: the war between Amazon ants and red forest ants, the Firefly who helps anyone lost in the forest, and the adventures of the ant Lasius, who embarks on a special mission to save the cocoon of the ant princess!

"...Some may think that the Old Forest could never have heard all of this. That in real life, an ant can't talk to a firefly. Or to a black water beetle. Or to a grape snail. Or to a cricket... Maybe not in real life. But in a fairy tale – anything can happen!"

size
170x240mm Pages: 32

CRAZY - AMBER EYE

Valery Kastyuchin

When Amber Eye was still a fox cub, he once met a little girl in a strawberry meadow. She shared a sausage sandwich with the mischievous little one, who had disobeyed his mother's warning and ventured out of the den into the sunshine. From that moment, a bond of trust grew between the cub and the girl, despite his mother's stern teachings that humans are cruel and that there could never be friendship between animals and people.

This fairy tale by the renowned animal writer Valery Kastyuchin, author of more than fifty books for children and teens, tells the story of a fox's life and more. Realistic depictions of animal life are effortlessly intertwined with the girl's magical, fantastical dreams. In one dream, she flies (with her red-furred friend!) to the Oak King's grand animal celebration...

This enchanting story by renowned animal writer Valery Kastyuchin, author of over fifty books for children and young adults, tells the life of a fox and more. Realistic depictions of animal life are seamlessly woven with the girl's magical dreams. In one dream, she flies (with her red-haired friend!) to the great Oak King for the grand animal celebration...

size
170x240mm Pages: 56

ALDAR KOSE

Gulzat Akzholova

Aldar Kose is a hero of Kazakh oral literature, representing a collective image of a clever, cunning, and intelligent trickster. In these legends, he achieves his goals through wit and cunning. Aldar Kose is revered in Kazakh folklore as a protector of the common people. His every action is remembered for exposing the wrongdoing of wealthy, arrogant, and violent individuals. He deceives them wisely, humbling them before society, and earning the applause of the people.

One well-known tale depicts him outsmarting a greedy rich man named Shybermes Shygaybai, eating the man's food, riding his horse, and even taking his daughter. In another story, he drives oxen away from a merchant. Aldar Kose's cleverness brings justice to the oppressed and teaches lessons to those who exploit others.

Aldar Kose is a common figure in the folklore of Turkic-speaking peoples, including the Kyrgyz, Uzbeks, Karakalpaks, Turkmens, and others. This wide representation shows the ancient origins and deep social significance of the stories surrounding him. Although no historical evidence proves Aldar Kose's real-life existence or the time in which he might have lived, his tales continue to resonate.

This collection of stories about Aldar Kose is adorned with illustrations, making the narrative both visually appealing and easy to read. The language is accessible, and the tales are engaging, capturing the timeless wit and wisdom of this beloved folk hero.

size
170x215mm Pages: 114

KAZAKH FOLK TALES

Gulzat Akzholova

Immerse yourself in the rich tapestry of Kazakh national tales, a treasure trove of folklore and legends that have captivated hearts for centuries. These timeless stories, passed down through generations, offer a window into the soul of Kazakh culture and tradition.

From epic tales of heroism and bravery to enchanting legends of mythical creatures and supernatural beings, Kazakh national tales transport readers to a world of wonder and imagination. Explore the nomadic lifestyle of the Kazakh people, their deep connection to nature, and the enduring values of courage, honor, and resilience that permeate these narratives.

With their universal themes and timeless appeal, Kazakh national tales are ripe for translation and adaptation for audiences around the globe. Whether enjoyed by children and adults alike, these enchanting stories offer a glimpse into a rich cultural heritage that spans generations.

Step into a world of magic and adventure, where legends come to life and the spirit of the Kazakh people shines brightly. Discover the beauty and depth of Kazakh national tales and share in the wonder of these cherished stories with readers worldwide.

size
170x215mm

Pages: 192

ALPAMYS BATYR

Akseleu Seidimbek

size
170x215mm

Pages: 176

The tale of the hero Alpamys dates back to ancient times of the Kazakh people, reflecting their beliefs in beauty, generosity, wisdom, and bravery.

Bay Baybori from the Konrat clan possesses immense wealth but lacks the most important thing - children. In their old age, Baybori and his wife Analik embark on a pilgrimage to the mausoleum of Saint Azret in hopes of obtaining a child.

And miraculously, a son is born to them, followed by a daughter. They name their son Alpamys and their daughter Karlygash.

Alpamys gains true heroic strength, becoming a defender of the oppressed and downtrodden, liberating the promised land Zhideli Baysyn from the villain Sultan.

ABYLAI KHAN AND BATYRS

Bayangali Alimzhanova

This tale, intended for children and young adults, is based on the national ideals and historical narratives of the Kazakhs. It portrays the life of one of Kazakhstan's great khans, Abulkhair, as a clear example of serving the homeland and the people with justice. Despite being orphaned at a young age, Abulkhair emerged as a brave warrior, establishing strong relations with formidable adversaries like the Jungars, Chinese, and Russians, and proving himself as a skilled leader and talented strategist. Through the wisdom and generosity of his nomadic fathers, the twists and turns of Abulkhair's destiny, and the remarkable bravery of the warriors during the Kazakh-Jungar conflicts, this book vividly illustrates the remarkable deeds of courage.

Pages: 96

size 170x215mm

Pages: 120

FRIENDLY ASKAR

Bayangali Alimzhanov

size
145x215mm

Far from us lies barefoot childhood in a small village lost somewhere in the vast Kazakh steppes, with treasure hunts, miraculous escapes from snakes, and steadfast boyish friendships... In the experiences of a boy whose childhood fell during the difficult post-war years, these events are vividly and vividly described, with a sense of joy in life despite harsh realities.

"Grandpa Daut's Tales" is a beautiful tapestry woven from childhood memories, where magical fairy tales are intricately woven with bright, colorful threads. Together, they form a wonderful, profound, and engaging children's book.

Pages: 88

GRANDPA DAUT'S TALES

Aliya Berkimbayeva

Far from us lies barefoot childhood in a small village lost somewhere in the vast Kazakh steppes, with treasure hunts, miraculous escapes from snakes, and steadfast boyish friendships... In the experiences of a boy whose childhood fell during the difficult post-war years, these events are vividly and vividly described, with a sense of joy in life despite harsh realities.

"Grandpa Daut's Tales" is a beautiful tapestry woven from childhood memories, where magical fairy tales are intricately woven with bright, colorful threads. Together, they form a wonderful, profound, and engaging children's book.

size
145x215mm

Pages: 112

ZAMAN: THE CENTAUR'S JOURNEY

Amir Shyngyskhan

This fantastic tale takes place in a time when Earth was not divided into six continents, and Eurasia and North America were united as Laurasia. It is a world inhabited by centaurs, arachnoids (spider-people), scorpionoides (scorpion-people), and ants (ant-people). The story begins with a war between Centauria and Arachnia and ends with Zaman, a centaur who grew up insecure and isolated from his friends and loved ones. Despite all odds, he stands against hostility and ultimately brings peace between the nations.

size
145x215mm

THE MYSTERIOUS INHABITANT OF THE GREEN LAKE

Nurzhan Muratali

"The Secret of the Green Lake" is a captivating collection of short stories designed for young readers. The book portrays intriguing events experienced by seventh-grade students, vividly depicted to leave a lasting impression. Erkin, intrigued by the mysterious secrets of the Green Lake, persuades his friends Daryn and Sat to uncover the enigmatic mysteries. The integrity and resourcefulness of the trio become evident through their adventures. Their journey to map out the secrets of the lake serves as a testament to their bravery, as they refuse to succumb to discouragement or heed the skepticism of others. The narrative teaches children to respect nature, show kindness to animals, and take responsibility for their actions.

size
145x215mm

THE JOURNEY TO AMAZING LANDS

Nurzhan Muratali

This is the second book by the author Nurzhan Murataliyev. The author skillfully crafts a story that captures the imagination. In the story, seventh-grade student Erkin glimpses a mysterious secret at the Green Lake. His friends Daryn and Sat join him in unraveling its mystery.

size
145x215mm

TURAN HEROES OR THE WARRIORS OF ER, BI, NAR

Duysen Kenes

Er, Bi, Nar - are the children of the present time. Fate gifts them with "a clock that allows them to travel in time." With this magical clock, they visit the great figures of the past: Alp Er Tengri, Anaris, Tumar Khan, Shyraaq, Sypatai, Mawdi Tengir Qut, Edil, Kultegin, Al-Farabi, Qayir Khan (defender of Otyrar), Oteiboydaq the Archer, Tauke Khan, and Khozhabergen the Hero. They become acquainted with the history, culture, and achievements of our ancestors. They themselves become part of history, contributing to the legacy of bravery and patriotism.

size
145x215mm

Pages: 168

Pages: 184

Pages: 276

FOLIANT

MALIKA BEGEZHANOVA

Rights manager

Tel.: +7 701 016 66 62

e-mail: rights@foliant.kz

